

TOWN OF FOUNTAIN HILLS
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States was signed 224 years ago on September 17, 1787, to form "... a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity"; and

WHEREAS, this cherished document, born of spirited contention and gracious compromise, provides a natural gateway to that study of our past which may enlighten the charting of our future; and

WHEREAS, we all share the blessings granted by the Constitution and the responsibility of ensuring that those blessings fall upon all our people; and

WHEREAS, as we mark the 224th anniversary of our nation's founding document, we celebrate the effort, dedication, and wisdom of our Founders and the blessings of liberty that resulted from their labors;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay T. Schlum, Mayor of the Town of Fountain Hills, Arizona, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2011 as "CONSTITUTION COMMEMORATION DAY" and heartily encourage the citizens of Fountain Hills to study the duties of citizenship and renew their dedication to the principles of the Constitution.

DATED This 15th day of September, 2011.

Jay T. Schlum, Mayor

Attest:

Bevelyn J. Bender, Town Clerk
