Fountain Hills Community Services, in partnership with the Boys and Girls Club, are hosting a free family-friendly Halloween event on Friday, October 30. Dress up in your costumes and come join us for some Halloween fun! There will be a photo booth, haunted house, and a Halloween movie to watch in the Community Center. Crafts and games will be held in Centennial Circle. This is a socially distant event and this is what we are doing to assure all who attend are safe:

- Masks must be worn when in the Community Center. (Halloween masks do not count)
- Social Distancing Guidelines must be followed.
- Only 50 people are allowed in the Community Center at any time.

Virtual Family Trivia Night: Halloween

Win prizes, test your smarts, and connect with the community. We are hosting a FREE, live, pub-style trivia night October 28. There will be (31) total Halloween themed questions. The questions will start simple and increase in difficulty. This allows everyone from kids to adults to play! You get more points the faster you answer, so think quick! The top 3 teams will receive prizes! Join our Fountain Hills Recreation Zoom livestream link before 7 PM on October 28. Email Bryan Bouk at bbouk@fh.az.gov if you have any questions.
